This is a thriller drama story, based on a true-life story of the humble man who had a heart of a devil. He makes living out of killing people by beheading them. The search was done for the killer but no one has ever thought of him, all possible suspects come out clean. Then, a special investigator is appointed to search and find the killer. She throws her self in a bunch of surprises when she leaves her family and falls in love with the man she has been searching for, for the rest of her career. She later discover the truth when her own life is at stake that the man she has been searching for is actually the one she dumped her fiancé for. She is in love with the DEVIL himself.

A collaborative network and developmental platform for music producers, beat-makers, artists, and music gear brands, is on the cusp of celebrating its momentous 5th anniversary. This extraordinary event promises to bring together the entire music ecosystem, including partners, collaborators, stakeholders, and industry enthusiasts, all under one roof. An unforgettable experience, complete with a diverse range of activities and invaluable insights that cater to artists, music producers, and music enthusiasts.

Featuring two prominent producers in the music industry. Makwa Beats, renowned for his collaborations with artists like Kwesha, AKA, and Kid X, will share insights from his remarkable career. Joining him is Luna<k Beats, the mastermind behind 'Cara Cara' for KO, and a collaborator with talents like A Reece, Sjava, and Emtee. Led by some of hip-hop's most influential figures, this roundtable series provides a unique perspective, delving into the development of genres like Skhanda and Mzokonko, and offering an intimate look into their personal music journeys. It's a rare opportunity for the audience to gain a deeper understanding of the music production process from industry luminaries.

Sidney (Sanaa Lathan) and Dre (Taye Diggs) can attribute their friendship and the launch of their careers to one single childhood instant ... witnessing the birth of hip-hop on a New York street corner. Now some 15 years later, she is a revered music critic and he is a successful, though unfulfilled, music executive. Both come to realize that their true life passions will only be fulfilled by remembering what they learned that day on the corner.

This truly South African series with homegrown humour set in the small town of Nigel, where the leading character, Worsie Visagie, starts his own "take away" business to create employment for himself and a few others. The trials and tribulations of starting a business from scratch are clearly, and in a light-hearted way, expressed in the series. The battle of the small guy against big business has always been a favourite theme amongst the viewers. The personal problems of the leading characters are another source of amusement and of such a nature that the viewers can identify with the characters and their daily issues in the series.

Bear Grylls leads this adventure competition that challenges 10 teams of two to survive in the wild. One team is sent home at the end of the leg. The seven remaining teams confront their most gruelling journey to date.

Many South Africans have taken the ultimate risk of moving abroad, seeking opportunities overseas, whilst leaving the people they love behind. They now wake up every day without their loved ones, separated by distance and time. This series re unites lovers, family, friends and parents with loved ones in South Africa, the arrangements are made in secret, with on camera glimpses of the overseas member receiving the call that they have been chosen, to the packing and arriving. They show us a window into their present world, be it Taiwan, the UK or Canada. There is only one other contact who knows what is happening and doing all the arrangements and that person is in South Africa.

The episodes are a roller coaster of anxiety, surprise reunions with family and friends, laughter, squeals of delight and tears of joy. The family members – after being reunited – go on a day trip that brings back fond memories of the past,

Culinary legend and 'queen of leftovers' Prue Leith teams up with food expert Dr Rupy Aujla to help British families tackle food waste and save money.

Every year in the UK we throw almost 14 billion pounds worth of food in the bin – it's bad for the planet and disastrous for our wallets. But with creative meal-planning, genius food hacks and mouth-watering recipes – Prue and Rupy are going to teach our families to 'Cook Clever and Waste Less'.

Exploring the most extraordinary region on the planet, this prestigious documentary series celebrates the diversity of landscapes, exuberance of wildlife and fascinating human stories spread across more than a million square kilometres at Earth's final frontier: Patagonia.

Over six stunning episodes, expert local crews join an international team of the world's best wildlife filmmakers to explore uncharted territory, discover new species and tell an urgent environmental story. Patagonia travels the 2000-mile length and Atlantic-to-Pacific breadth of this vast, enigmatic region to illuminate five distinct terrains: majestic mountains, the far south, dense forests, hostile deserts and breath-taking fjordlands.

Woven through this extraordinary wealth of landscapes are fascinating stories of the dizzying array of birds, animals, insects, plants and people that have evolved to survive and thrive here, as well as the local and global environmental changes that are threatening them.

Follow five new competitive agents as they take viewers inside Cape Town's most lavish properties ranging from R15 million to R280 million. Produced by Alterna TV – the creators of SA's first property-themed reality TV show, Listing Jozi. Following the success of Listing Jozi in 2021, viewers can look forward to Listing Cape Town, the second season of the hit property-themed reality TV show, from 1 June 2022. Listing Cape Town will join BBC's local line-up on Wednesdays at 20h00 on BBC Lifestyle, DStv channel 174.

This season will take viewers into homes across the Atlantic Seaboard, Green Point, Sea Point, Bantry Bay, Fresnaye, Clifton, Camps Bay, Llandudno, De Waterkant, Cape Town City, Bishopscourt as well as inland properties in and around Franschhoek, Val de Vie and Pearl Valley. From manicured stud farms in and around the Cape winelands, to breath-taking beach bungalows, Listing Cape Town will feature some of the Mother City's most opulent and over the top properties ranging from R15 million to R280 million in value.
